

Actresses: In Their Own Words

There is nothing quite as absurd as listening to some actors, actresses, or any of the rest of us talking about what we don't know. Most of us do that regularly but fortunately are not on camera or quoted at the time. Sooner or later most actors and actresses start to learn to avoid these pitfalls and focus on what their fans do want to know about and much of that is written and recorded here. A few do not learn this lesson and keep plowing forward as do Jane Fonda and Barbra Streisand, with readers and listeners gritting their teeth as they become ever more strident and shrill. And perhaps even worse, knowing what they will say before they even say it. But they are only a few, though a noisy few. Over 100 actresses from Fay Wray to Julia Roberts and Selena Gomez are quoted on subjects as themselves, their personal point of view, sex and being a sex symbol, love, friendship, marriage, men, women, philosophy, humor, witty, observations & reflections, the world, people, the movies, TV, and the theater. A must read for all fans. Amazon has the audiobook version on audible. 4th in the series after Lincoln, wit Dr. Johnson, and Mark Twain. Enjoy these wonderful actresses and pick your favorite surprise. Ours was Pamela Anderson. Yes, her! Others were Carmen Electra, Julia Roberts, and we will save the others for you to enjoy. Several you would expect to be on the list only had a line or two. Some none! Have fun with this!
