

Music as Medicine: The Art & Science of Healing With Sound

Music as Medicine Kay Gardner Create Your Own Healing Music - On Music As Medicine, you will join composer and teacher Kay Gardner as she explores healing music, from its rich past in cultures worldwide to its present and future application in sound healing clinics and research centers. Gardner teaches you the major elements and techniques within the science of sound healing, and explains how they are used to entrain (or synchronize) the human body to harmonize with the hidden vibrations of the universe. At last, here is a 12-session curriculum complete with exercises to help you create your own healing prescriptions based on Gardner's pioneering system. If you can make sound and feel vibrations, you have the natural power to help yourself and others, with Music As Medicine.
