

The Serra Effect (36 Chambers Series)

The Serra Effect, the project conceived by the artist for the book series 36 Chambers, alludes to the impact of his gaze on the world. A tracking shot of characters, idols of the neopop culture, portrayed in their natural environment: the spectacle society. Comfortable like in the most intimate context. Among the icons immortalized by Serra there are: Umberto Eco, Elisabeth Hurley, Tony Alva, Any Warhol, Tommy Guerrero, Tony Hawk, Aaron Rose, Mark Gonzales, Harold Hunter, James Taylor, Richard Serra, Jonas Mekas, Colin McKay, Phil Frost, Alanis Morissette, Peter Gabriel, Davis Bowie and Moby, Stacey Peralta, Rodney Torres, Barry McGee, Tom Sachs, Robert Plants, Philip Glass, Wu Tang, Moorcheeba, Avril Lavigne, Lenny Kravitz, Hiroshima Survivor. Next to the portraits, like in a , family pictures, and still lives of crushed objects (Coca Cola, Sunkist, Country Club, Old English cans, Marlboro, Phillies, Double Happiness pockets), with pages from Moleskine notebooks.
