Excerpt from Travels, Vol. 2: Through Holland, Flanders, Germany, Denmark, Sweden, Lapland, Russia, the Ukraine and Poland, in the Years 1768, 1769, and 1770; In Which Is Particularly Minuted, the Present State of Those Countries, Respecting Their Agriculture, Population, Manufactures From Middleburgh I set out for Sluys, the 27th of June; part of the way, I was forced to take a sailing boat. There is nothing in that town, which is worth the shortest stay; I only dined there, and in the afternoon reached Bruges, having passed through a country pretty well cultivated. I fixed my quarters by recommendation at the Half Moon, where I found extreme good accommodation, and much civility. Bruges is an ancient and extensive city, walled in, the circumference being near five miles. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
